CONDOLENCES

Prayerful condolences to the family of Edward [Eddie] Teddy who died on Tuesday, 29 September. His funeral took place on Friday, 02 October at 13h00.

During this beautiful month dedicated to the Holy Rosary, we warmly invite all our parishioners to make time for this cherished prayer—whether in the quiet of your own home, gathered with your family, or together as a parish community. As we journey through the mysteries of the Rosary, may Mary gently lead us closer to her Son, Jesus. May our prayers bring comfort to those who are struggling, strength to our families, and peace to our hearts and to our world.

A Prayer for the Month of the Rosary

Blessed Mother Mary, walk with us throughout this month of the Rosary. Teach us to treasure the gift of prayer and to place our lives, our families and our worries gently into the hands of your Son, Jesus. May each Hail Mary draw us closer to Him, fill our hearts with His peace, and help us to be people of faith, hope and love. Mary, Queen of the Holy Rosary, pray for us and for our parish family. Lead us ever closer to Jesus. Amen.

CARITAS BACK FROM THIS WEEKEND 03/04 OCTOBER

“Caritas” means love — a love that is lived through service, compassion and action. We are excited to announce the re-introduction of the Caritas Fund at the Parish of St. Joseph! Caritas is the Catholic Church’s call to reach out to those who are struggling, vulnerable or in need. It reminds us that our faith is not only about what we believe, but also about how we care for one another. Through the Caritas Fund, our Parish community will be able to respond to genuine needs within our parish family and wider community — offering practical assistance, dignity and hope to those who find themselves facing difficult circumstances. ❤️ How can you help? Every contribution, no matter how small, can make a difference. You can support the Caritas Fund through: a once-off donation, regular monthly contributions, donations towards specific needs, or supporting Caritas collections over the first weekend of each month beginning this weekend. Together, we can be the hands and feet of Christ to those who need a little help, hope and kindness.

FATHER MICHAEL ON LEAVE

Please note that Father Michael will be on leave from 06 to 25 October. We ask our parish community to keep him in prayer during this time and we wish him a restful and refreshing break. May God bless and keep him safe throughout his leave.

Please also take note of the following changes to our liturgical schedule while Father Michael is away. Monday, 12 & 19 October: There will be no Mass. A Communion Service will be held instead. Friday, 9, 16 & 23 October: There will be no Adoration and Benediction. Thank you for your understanding and continued support as a parish family.
